

Spooky Story

By Heidi Crowter

Lucy and Brianna woke up to the sound of cackling of witches. They decided to go down the creaking stairs and slipped their old trainers on. And they decided to put their coats on. They creaked open the door and stepped outside. They made their way through a flock of trees. Then they stepped onto a massive hill. Then they walked down some steps and they saw the creepiest sight they ever saw. They went up towards a creepy haunted house.

They decided to go in and to explore. They went upstairs and they started to explore. And they found a creepy room full of cobwebs. There they died of thirst.
